

KAYAK & PADDLE SPORTS

This page is dedicated to the users of our facilities by kayakers, canoes and other paddle sport enthusiasts. The Port has completed its final stage of improvements which includes our beach area for ease of launching without interfering with motorized boat launchers and a permanent restroom.

The area is perfectly situated for paddle sport activity. The launch and water trails are protected by both Treasure Island and Stretch Island which acts as a breakwater from wind and surf.

Allyn Washington, home of the World Famous Geoduck Festival and Allyn Days family event. Allyn is located on Case Inlet and is one of Puget Sound's best kept secrets for family friendly recreational retreats. The calm waters of Case Inlet inspire you to kayak, fish, enjoy comforting food from one of the many restaurants, play golf at Lakeland Village Golf Course, or simply relax at the waterfront park.

LAUNCH RAMP TO THE TOWN OF ALLYN 3.0 miles

Fair Harbor Marina adjacent to the Port of Grapeview launch ramp is a private enterprise and has a convenience store at the fuel dock.

Allyn has many restaurants, all within walking distance of the Port of Allyn launch ramp:

- 22 Margaritas - Mexican (In Allyn Market Plaza)
- Big Bubbas Burgers (Fast Food, outdoor dining only).
- Boat House Bar and Restaurant
- Allyn Ice Cream Parlor & Kayak Rentals
- Allyn Market Plaza (ATM, Food Store, Allyn Pizza))
- Espresso Coffee Kiosk
- Tourist: George Kenny's chain saw carvings.

Tying up: The Port of Allyn also has a ramp and launch. Caution: At tides lower than PLUS 2.0 the area is a mud flat. Do not visit on an outgoing tide.

LAUNCH RAMP TO THE STRETCH ISLAND CHANNEL & STATE PARK 1.5 miles

This is a fun trip with many coves to access, especially with children who you can surprise with tales of pirates!

Stretch Island State Park is accessible by water only. Respect shoreline residents - no clamming or oyster picking outside of the Park.

Caution: At tides lower than PLUS 2.0 the area south of the Stretch Island Bridge is a mud flat. Do not visit on an outgoing tide less than a 2.0 tide. Plan your trip.

LAUNCH RAMP TO JARRELL COVE STATE PARK 5.0 miles

Enclosed by Puget Sound and surrounded by Case Inlet and Pickering Passage, this park on Harstine Island is a watery haven with excellent opportunities for swimming, diving and boating.

Jarrell's Cove Marina is located on Pickering Passage in South Puget Sound in Mason County. Jarrell's Cove Marina is just across the cove from Jarrell Cove State Park.
